15 Supply of steel furniture should be made only after inspection of the articles by the Inspection wing of the Directorate of Industries and Commerce, Bangalore, which will be done even during the process of manufacture and each article of steel furniture should bear the seal of the said Inspection wing before they are delivered to the indentors and a certificate testifying to the quality enclosed each time supplies are made. For purposes of inspection gauges should be measured but the Inspecting Officer and he Indentor should fully verify whether the materials conform to the specifications ordered in respect of all other details such as size, workmanship etc., in case of doubts, the samples kept in the Office of the Director, Commerce and Industries Department may be referred to The fact that the materials are inspected and approved by the Inspecting officer is not a valid reason for the Indentor to accept stores without verification. The indentor can reject part or full supply, if in his opinion the materials supplied do not conform to specifications ordered.

16 Payment :—75 per cent against R/R (not through Bank) when accompanied by the Inspection Report and Bill. The balance will be payable after receipt of materials in good condition and verification. The indentor should make use of the benefit of rebate.

17 Racks and glass :—door almirahs should be supplied in an assembled condition, and in case these articles are sent in an unassembled condition the suppliers should make their own arrangements at their own cost to re-assemble at the destinations.

Please acknowledge receipt of this order and quote the above Local Indent number in all your correspondence relating to this contract.

Your's faithfully,

K. VENKATARAMAIAH,
